This is an Easy Read resource about the 2023 Acknowledge Me exhibition

Acknowledge Me

Acknowledge Me is co-curated by Caroline Wylds (APA Staff artist) and Adrian Lazzaro (APA artist).

The exhibition opens on Saturday 25 March 2023, 3pm at the Arts Project Australia gallery.

Acknowledge Me will continue until Saturday 6 May 2023.

Arts Project Australia's gallery is located on level 1 in the Perry Street building of Collingwood Yards.

Exhibition information

Acknowledge Me is a showcase of the incredible talent of Adrian Lazzaro. The exhibition is based around Adrian's epic scrapbook collection.

Acknowledge Me also includes work by APA artists Will McConnell and Matthew Gove.

As a response to Adrian Lazzaro's work, artist Katherine Botten has created an installation across the gallery windows. This artwork is titled High.

Featured artists

Adrian Lazzaro is an Arts Project Australia artist creating colourful comicstrip-like artwork in pencil, pen, paint and textile.

When creating his artwork Adrian draws inspiration from wrestlers, zombies, teddy bears and lovers.

The artwork pictured is Untitled. Adrian made this artwork in 2022.

Will McConnell is an emerging Arts Project Australia artist creating brightly coloured drawings.

When making his artwork Will incorporates strong line work, text and negative space to create unique and energetic scenes.

The artwork pictured is Untitled. Will made this artwork in 2022.

Featured artists

Matthew Gove is an emerging Arts Project Australia artist who creates ceramic sculptures and paintings.

When creating his artwork Matthew incorporates his witty sense of humour.

Matthew often creates work that shows animals behaving like humans. Matthew also likes to recreate characters and scenes from his favourite movies.

Matthew made this artwork in 2022.
